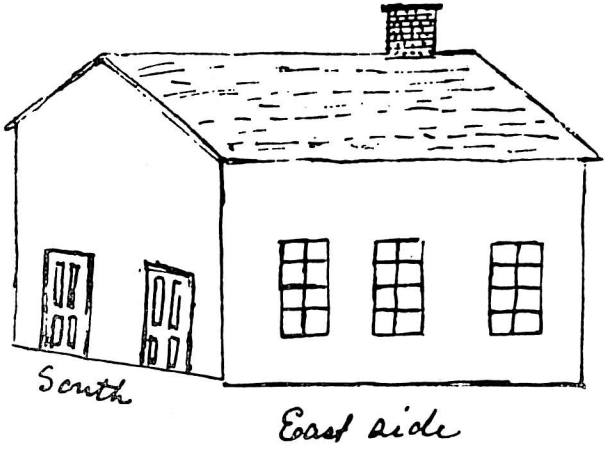
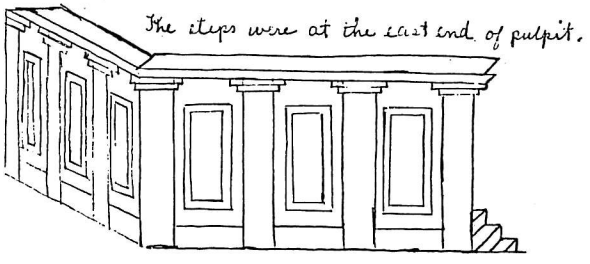
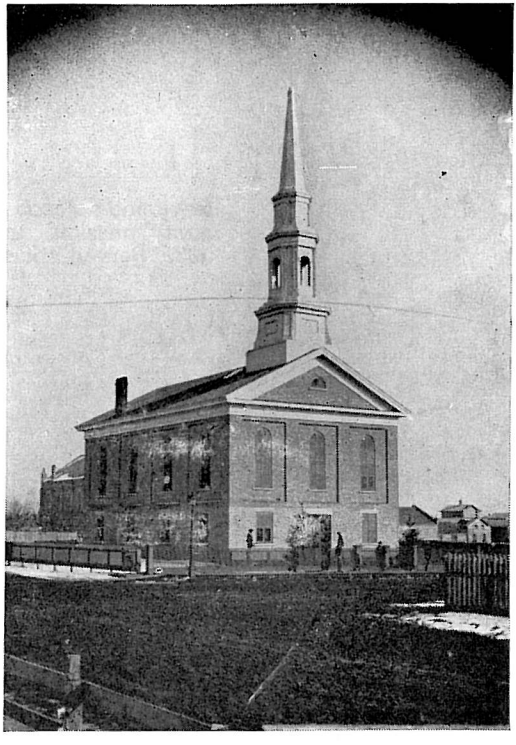
Reverend Jacob Boas, first mission minister, 1837. Served six months.



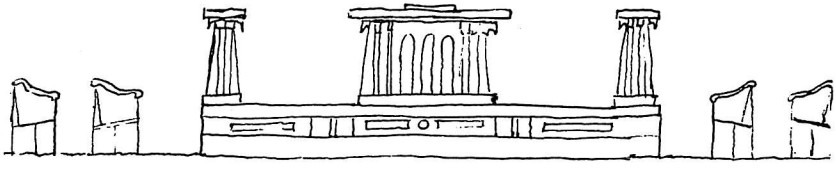
Zion Evangelical Church—1842. Van Buren Ave., between Eagle and Webster streets.



Pulpit of 1842 church sketched by Hannah Ditzler Alspaugh many years later.

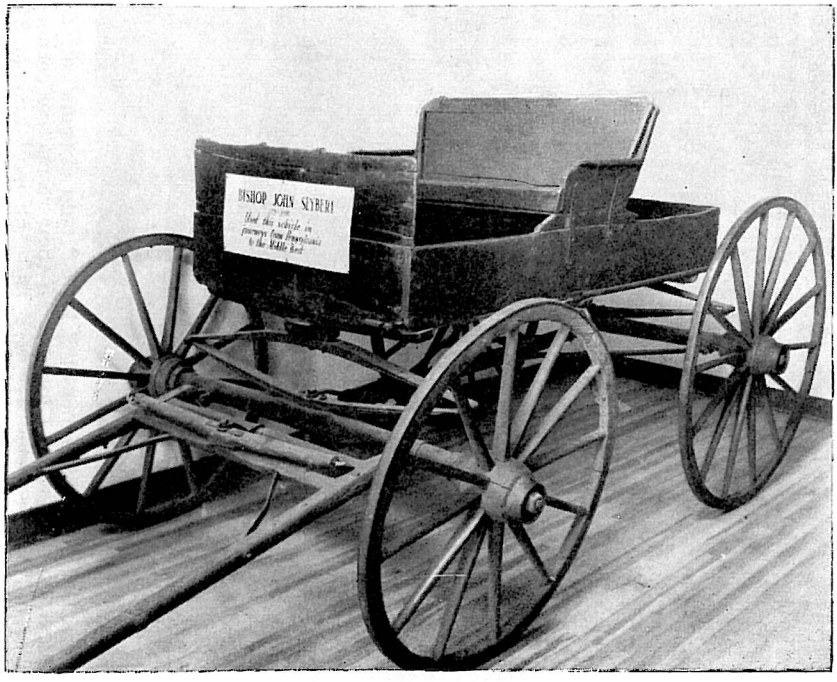


Zion Evangelical Church—1859. Corner of Center and Franklin Streets. Later known as the "Old Brick Church." Bell installed in high steeple in 1867.

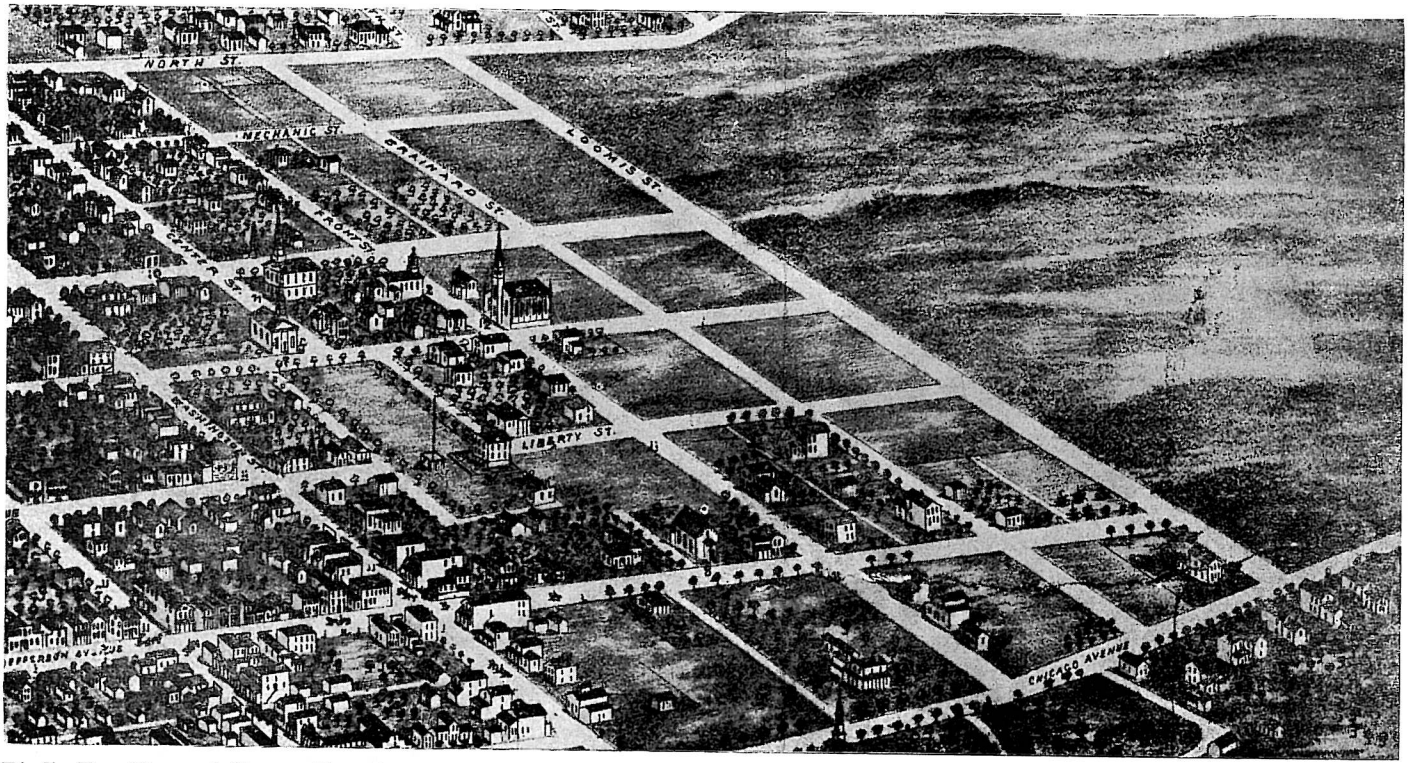


Pulpit and near-by pews of the Brick Church. Made by hand from white pine by Jonathan Ditzler. Sketched by his daughter Hannah from her father's plans.

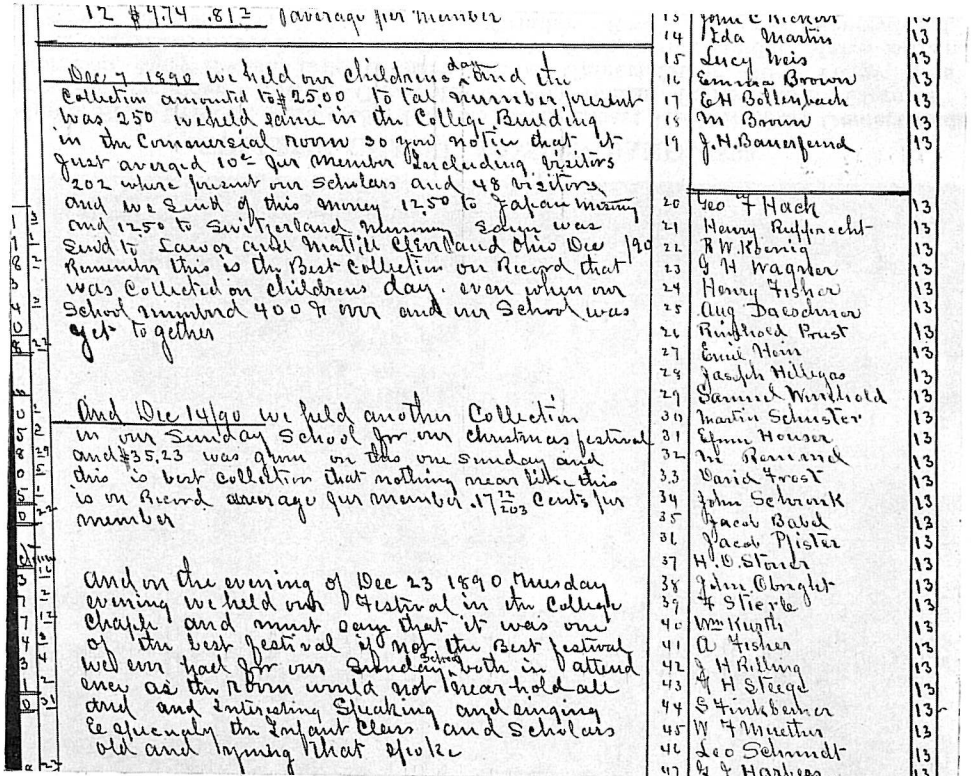
Bishop John Seybert in the late 1850's.



His Famous Buggy



Bird's Eye View of Naperville, 1869. "Piety Corners" already well established, with the Catholic, Congregational, Evangelical, and Methodist Churches on their respective corners. "Old Main" of North-Western College built one year later on adjoining lot between Brainard and "far-out" Loomis Streets.



12 #4.74 .81⅔ Average per Member

Dec 7 1890 we held our Childrens 2nd day and the Collection amounted to $25.00 Total number present was 250 we held same in the College Building in the Commercial room so you notice that it just averaged 10¢ per Member Excluding visitors 202 where present our Scholars and 48 visitors and we Send of this money 12.50 to Japan mission and 12.50 to Switzerland Mummy Selyn was Send to Lawrence and Matill Cleveland Ohio Dec 1890 Remember this is the Best Collection our Record that was Collected on childrens day. ever when our School numbred 400 & over and our School was yet together

And Dec 14/90 we held another Collection in our Sunday School for our christmas festival and $35.23 was given on this one Sunday and this is best collection that nothing near like this is our Record average per Member .17 22/203 Cents per member

And on the evening of Dec 23 1890 Thursday evening we held our Festival in the College Chapel and must say that it was one of the best festival if not the Best festival we ever had for our Sabbath School both in Attendence as the Room would not near hold all and and interesting Speaking and singing be specially the Infant Class and Scholars old and young that spoke

13	John C Reeves	13
14	Ida Martin	13
15	Lucy Reis	13
16	Emma Brown	13
17	C H Bollenbach	13
18	M Bowne	13
19	J.H. Baumgard	13
20	Geo F Hack	13
21	Henry Ruffinecht-	13
22	P W Koenig	13
23	G H Wagner	13
24	Henry Fisher	13
25	Aug Daeschner	13
26	Reinhard Prust	13
27	Emil Hein	13
28	Joseph Hillegas	13
29	Samuel Reinhold	13
30	Martin Schuster	13
31	Effie Houser	13
32	W Reinhard	13
33	David Frost	13
34	John Schrenk	13
35	Jacob Bard	13
36	Jacob Pfister	13
37	H.C. Stricker	13
38	John Obrecht	13
39	F Stierle	13
40	Wm Kugler	13
41	A Fisher	13
42	J H Rilling	13
43	J H Steege	13
44	S Finkbeiner	13
45	W F Mueller	13
46	Leo Schmidt	13
47	H F Harbers	13

Part of page 243 from Sunday School Record Book of Zion Church. Kept by William R. Hillegas from 1873 to 1896.

COLLEGE CHAPEL MISSION BAND—1899

Row 1: Harlan Musselman, Elvis Drissler, Vida Good, Lois Johnson, Elbert Koehler, Carl Gamertsfelder, Raymond Kletzing, Ray Kline, Judson Gamertsfelder. Row 2: Olive Musselman, Susan Bauernfeind, Clarence Koehler, Almond Kieckhoefer, Bernice Johnson, Mary Brown, Lulu Umbach, Mabel Gamertsfelder, Olive Yaggy, Elva Kletzing. Row 3: Elsie Brown, Lisa Johnson, Suzy Brown, Fred Schutte, John Schutte, Ruth Gamertsfelder, Mabel Brown, Pearl Bomberger, Gordon Gamertsfelder, Myron Umbach, Claude Parker, Fred Drissler. Row 4: Amanda Bauernfeind, Lydia Weidlich.